Madrid, November 11, N. S.

HIS Catholick Majesty has conferred on the Duke de Veraguas the Place of Councellour of War, which was vacant by the Death of General Villeti; it is thought the said Duke will be soon declared the Chief of that Council, he being a Grandee of Spain, and has the Rank of Captain General, in which Station he commanded in Sardinia when it was taken by the English and the Emperour in the Year 1707, where also he was made Prisoner. A Council is formed here by the Name of Junta de Sanidad, consisting of four Councellours, who are to give Directions for preserving the Spanish Dominions from the Plague now raging in the Levant, and to inspect and judge all Disputes that may happen on that Head in the Trade with Spain. His Catholick Majesty has ordered several Regulations to be observed for the Admission of Ships of all Nations into the Ports in his Dominions, and no Ship is to be admitted from the Levant without performing Quarantain, or bringing proper Certificates of having made Quarantain in some Port of the Mediterranean; and all Goods of any Manufacture or Product of the Provinces in the Levant are forbid Entrance. In the same Order it is said, that the King of Spain having been informed that no Precautions are used in Great Britain, France and Holland, for preventing the Plague, he will absolutely prohibit all Trade with those Powers, if he has any Proof of their admitting Ships and Goods into their Dominions from the Levant. The Abbot de Mongon intends to set out for Paris in about eight or ten Days. Letters from Gibraltar of the 1st Instant, N.S. advise, that Admiral Hopson arrived there the Day before with some Men of War of his Squadron. Letters from Barcelona of the 2d Instant relate, that 300 Seamen had been imbarked there for Cadiz to serve in the Spanish Men of War which lay in that Harbour. Letters from Cadiz of the 5th Instant advise, that the two Advice-Boats design'd for the West-Indies are still in that Bay, as also four Spanish Men of War, and that the Genoese Ship bought by the Marquess Mari is at last paid for and received.
